

Topic:Six Stars Recognition

Webmaster from ScoutsCan.com - Scouting in Canada

Six Stars Recognition

Posted 10-15-2001 15:46

Does anyone have a special recognition ceremony for any Cubs that have passed all six Stars? We used to make up a frame, with a scarf as a background, and put in it, all six Stars, our Region, Area and Group badges, and anything else special, such as RIL or World Cons. We then present this at our annual dinner.

Does anyone else do anything like this?

Wulfman from ScoutsCan.com - Scouting in Canada

Six Star Awards & More

Posted 4-25-2002 17:31

Yes I make trophies for many groups in the Toronto Area. you can contact me peter.arbour@rogers.com for more info or visit my site at <http://communities.msn.com/WulfofArt>
Yours In Scouting
Pete

Ken [guest] from ScoutsCan.com - Scouting in Canada

Six-star award

Posted 5-29-2002 17:41

We have finished wood plaques in the outline of a wolf's head. We attach brass plates with the Cub's name, group name, years as a cub and six stars engraved. They are presented at our group's going up ceremony.

robinsulz [guest] from ScoutsCan.com - Scouting in Canada

six stars recognition

Posted 2-6-2003 00:41

We give an engraved Cub ring to every cub that earns every badge and star. It is presented at the annual

MIKE [guest] from ScoutsCan.com - Scouting in Canada

6 STARS

Posted 6-4-2003 19:22

We present a Canadian flag to the Cubs that have received their 6 stars. We usually do the presentation at our annual banquet in May. We get the flags donated to us, by our local MLA or MNA. All they need is a letter from you stating what you need them for and how many you would like. Sometimes, the local politician comes to present them to the cubs. A nice touch I think. Mike

ayates [guest] from ScoutsCan.com - Scouting in Canada

6 star award

Posted 6-11-2003 17:13

We give a framed award containing the group necker, region/area/province crest, all their badges and stars, epaulet, etc (basically everything on their uniform and sash). The back is signed by all the Cub leaders with jungle and real names.